

SPIRITUAL HOMES SUITABLE FOR MEMBERS OF THE LGBTQ+ COMMUNITY

Are you searching for a spiritual place for yourself or your family? There are many liberal choices in and around the Pennridge area and Bucks County that are welcoming to all people.

A congregation officially becomes Welcoming and Affirming after a full congregational vote with a positive outcome. Each denomination has developed its own educational program which entails seminars or workshops designed for its members. When a congregation completes their program successfully, they will commonly include wording on their website and in their literature such as this: "We welcome you, whatever your gender or gender identity, sexual orientation, ability, race, ethnic origin, economic or immigration status."

Find those with this status within their denomination below.
